

Affliction and Faith

The Prophet ﷺ said, “The example of the believer is that of a plant that the winds do not cease to sway. [Likewise], afflictions do not cease to strike the believer. The example of the hypocrite is that of a pine tree. It is not shaken until it is uprooted” [Reported by Muslim from Abū Hurayrah].

The Prophet ﷺ said, “Great reward comes with great affliction. If Allah ﷻ loves a people, He strikes them with affliction. Whoever is pleased then will have the pleasure [of Allah]. And whoever is angered then will have the anger [of Allah]” [Reported by at-Tirmidhī from Anas].

He ﷺ also said, “Whomever Allah wants good for, He strikes with affliction” [Reported by al-Bukhārī from Abū Hurayrah].

He ﷺ also said, “Nothing afflicts the believer of tiredness, illness, worry, sorrow, harm, anguish, and even a thorn he is pricked by, except that Allah pardons thereby some of his sins” [Reported by al-Bukhārī from Abū Hurayrah and Abū Sa’īd al-Khudrī].

He ﷺ also said, “Afflictions do not cease to strike the believer in his children and wealth until he meets Allah ﷻ having no sins” [Reported by at-Tirmidhī from Abū Hurayrah].
